What we do

How does Butler Capital Partners protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees and service providers who need to know that information to provide products or services to you.

How does Butler Capital Partners collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Complete forms we may require
- Complete agreements that we may need to review
- Receive information on transactions

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
